

Hunting Camps

Please find below suggested items to bring during your stay with us. This is only a guideline to follow to assure your comfort and safety while at camp. We would like to inform you that weight is essential on this trip, as we will be packing all your gear on mules. Please bring quiet hunting gear. Canvas and Gortex can be very noisy in the woods as an outer garment. We find that fleece and wool work the best:

CLOTHING:

- 2 pair camouflages clothing (pants, sweatshirt, coat)
- 3 pair pants (cotton or jeans, wool)
- 1 wool or fleece heavy coat
- 2 pair insulated/waterproof hiking boots, well broke -in
- 1 pair camp shoes (loafers or sneakers)
- 4 pair long underwear
- 6-8 T-shirts
- 8-12 pair of socks
- 2 pair gloves
- Rain gear
- 1-2 hunting caps or hats

TOILETRIES:

- Hand soap, Shampoo
- Toothbrush, Toothpaste
- Toilet Paper/wet wipes
- Prescription Medications
- First aid kit

Cook Gear - Food:

- Dish soap. Dish-pan
- Pots, pans, coffee pot
- Dishes (plates, bowls, cups etc.)
- Paper towels, scrub brush
- Water purifier
- Collapsible water jug
- Food & Drinks
- 12 Sm. Propane bottle per 2 hunters

GEAR:

- Weapon (w. extra shells or arrows)
- Chairs, Cots
- Backpack or daypack (fleece)
- Sleeping Bag
- Skinning knife
- Compass
- Canteen (or plastic bottle)
- Lighter / waterproof matches
- Binoculars / spotting scope
- Game bag
- Headlamp or Flashlight w/ extra batteries
- Axe, Bow saw, extra blades
- Shovel

OPTIONAL GEAR:

- Compact rifle cleaning kit
- Scope covers
- Boot grease
- Anti-fog solution for glasses
- Moleskin for blisters
- Handheld GPS
- 2 way FRS Radios / Satellite Phone
- Foam Pad / Air Mattress
- Spare boots
- SPOT satellite Tracker

Drop Camps:

- In addition to the items listed above:
- Tent (s)
 - Stove(s) Wood, Cooking
 - Table
 - Tarp (Rain & Floor)

Please have your weapon properly sighted in prior to your arrival.

We hope this helps you and has answered your questions about what to bring. Please email or call if you have any additional questions. We look forward to seeing you.